STORIES FOR CHILDREN. The Museum has invited the children of Annual Subscribers to a series of story hours on five Saturday afternoons at three o'clock, beginning November 16. The stories, intended for children from eight to twelve years old, are illustrated by lantern slides and by the Museum collections. Under the title "With the "Forerunners of Our Allies," a story is told each week about a boy of one of the allied nations, with the purpose of interesting the children through the story in the many objects in the Museum collections which show the beauty and background of life in those countries in past and present times.
